

Kenya Vaun – Boiler Plate (2023)

Kenya Vaun channels timeless soul from a fresh and fiery perspective as a 22-year-old R&B singer and songwriter. Born and raised in Philadelphia, she immediately gravitated towards music as a kid. She quietly honed her voice until friends urged her to post “Kick It” online. 2018 saw her captivate listeners with her independent favorite “Movie Night.” 2022’s “Bout’ Me” preceded her signing to 300 Entertainment. Kicking off 2023, she enraptured listeners with “Overrated,” piling up 1 million streams and counting. Meanwhile, its successor “Summer” reacted with audiences and tastemakers as it was the featured record for Ebro’s Discovered on Apple Music. Raydar Magazine raved her “an artist with staying power.” As a showstopping performer, she also ignited the “BLACK GIRLS ROCK! FEST” at The Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Now, Kenya stands primed to usher in a new era of soul and R&B on her own terms with her debut EP and more to come.
