ABOUT TEE GRIZZLEY:

Tee Grizzley knows the power of each decision. Before ascending to the forefront of hip-hop as a chart-topping multiplatinum force of nature, the proud Detroit native came home from prison and chose to turn his life around. He acknowledged the mistakes, the missteps, the trauma, and the pain of his past, but he also alchemized all of it into a brand of cinematic storytelling all his own. Enduring for nearly ten years as a rap staple, his 2016 debut single “First Day Out” impressively went 5x-Platinum. He architected a bold discography anchored by the double-platinum “From the D to the A” [feat. Lil Yachty] and gold-certified hits “2 Vaults,” “Jetski Grizzley,” “No Effort,” and “Satish.” Speaking to his impact, he has impressively gathered north of 6 billion streams and counting. Simultaneously, he logged three straight Top 20 debuts on the Billboard 200 and packed houses on tour. In the wake of his 2022 visual album Chapters of the Trenches and “Robbery” video series, Billboard went as far as to crown him “Rap’s Martin Scorsese.” In 2023, he remained as prolific as ever, delivering the joint mixtape Controversy with Skilla Baby and Tee’s Coney Island. The latter yielded another signature hit with the gold-certified “IDGAF” [feat. Chris Brown & Mariah The Scientist], which he performed at the 2024 BET Awards Red Carpet Pre-Show. JAY-Z and LeBron James have vocally co-signed him. He even guested on MSNBC’s The Beat with Ari Melber. Now, he takes stock of where he’s been, considers where he’s going, and delivers his most vital, vibrant, and vulnerable full-length to date, Post Traumatic [Grizzley Gang/300 Entertainment].
